Additional instructions for part year and nonresidents.

1. IT-553 Page 1. Lines 1 through 8 should not be completed for any years for which a part year or nonresident return was filed. Instead the part year and nonresident schedule above should be completed.
2. IT-553 Page 2. If the loss year is a part year or nonresident year for Lines 3a, 3b, 6, and 11, compute the amount and then multiply it by the percentage of Georgia AGI to adjusted Federal AGI on schedule 3 of the loss year return. For example, if you have one exemption, multiply $2,700 by the percentage on schedule 3 of the loss year return. The other Lines on Page 2 that pertain to Georgia source income should also be filled in.
3. IT-553 Page 3 net operating loss carryover schedule. If any years on this schedule are part year or nonresident years, for Lines 6 and 7, compute the amount and then multiply it by the percentage on Line 4 of the part year and nonresident schedule. For example, if you have one exemption, multiply $2,700 by the percentage on Line 4 of the above schedule. The other Lines on the net operating loss carryover schedule that pertain to Georgia source income should also be filled in.

General Instructions

An application for a tentative carry-back adjustment may be filed on this form by an individual or fiduciary taxpayer that desires a quick refund of taxes afforded by carry-back of a net operating loss. This form must be filed within 12 months following the close of the loss year. Additionally, for tax years beginning before January 1, 2003, an amended return can be filed on or before the 15th day of the 4th month following the close of the loss year. For income tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2003, an amended return can be filed no later than 3 years from the due date of the loss year income tax return, including any extensions which have been granted.

This form must be filed with the Georgia Department of Revenue, N.O.L. Section, P.O.Box 49432, Atlanta, Georgia 30359-1432.

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, a net operating loss must be carried back and forward in the procedural sequence of taxable periods provided by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it existed on January 1, 2005. Accordingly, for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, losses should be carried back two years (with special rules for farmers and casualty losses). For tax years beginning before January 1, 2005, Georgia did not adopt the five year carry-back and continued to use the two year carry-back (with special rules for farmers and casualty losses) as provided under the old Federal law.

Within a period of 90 days from the last day of the month in which an application for tentative carry-back adjustment is filed, the Commissioner of Revenue shall make a limited examination of the application and disallow without further action any application containing errors of computation not correctable within such 90-day period or having material omissions. A decrease of tax determined for prior year tax will first be credited against any unpaid tax and any remaining balance will be refunded to the taxpayer without interest within the 90-day period. This application for tentative carry-back adjustment does not constitute a claim for credit or refund. If the application is disallowed in whole or in part, no suit based thereon may be maintained in court for the recovery of the tax. The taxpayer may file a regular claim for credit or refund at any time before the expiration of the applicable period of limitation. If the commissioner should determine that the amount credited or refunded by an application is in excess of the amount properly attributable to the carry-back with respect to which such amount was credited or refunded, the commissioner may assess the amount of the excess as a deficiency as if it were due to a mathematical error appearing on the face of the return.

What to attach:

1. Copy of Federal Application for Net Operating Loss.
2. Copy of Federal return for the loss year that includes all schedules and forms.
3. Copy of Federal returns for the carry-back or carry-forward years with all schedules and forms.
4. Copy of Georgia returns for the carry-back or carry-forward years.

Be sure to attach all required forms listed above and complete all lines of the Form IT-553 that apply. Otherwise your application may be disallowed.

The carryback period may be foregone and the N.O.L. carried forward.

Election: A taxpayer is bound by the Federal election to forego the carry-back period. A copy of this election should be attached to the Georgia return. If there is a Georgia but no Federal N.O.L., the taxpayer may make an election "for Georgia purposes only" under the same rules and restrictions as the Federal election.

Example: A taxpayer has a large Net Operating Loss in 1998 (both Federal and Georgia). With his timely filed Federal return, he includes a statement that he elects to forgo the carry-back period. He must therefore carry his Georgia (as well as his Federal) N.O.L. forward without first carrying it back. Any portion not absorbed after 20 years is lost.

Special rules apply for any part of a net operating loss related to a foreign expropriation loss, a product liability loss, and certain other losses. See I.R.C. section 172 and the related regulations.

Columns a, c, and e.

Enter the amounts from your original return or as previously adjusted by you or the Department of Revenue.

Columns b, d, and f.

Lines 1 and 6, enter the amounts after adjustments that are required by I.R.C. Section 172, if any.

Lines 2 and 8, enter the amounts from your original return or as previously adjusted by you or the Department of Revenue.

Line 11, the credit for taxes paid to other states should be recomputed based on the new Georgia AGI and deductions. Other credits that are based on liability should be adjusted accordingly. Any credits that are not allowed and that are eligible for carry-forward can be carried forward.

A Georgia Net Operating Loss (N.O.L.) must be computed separately from any Federal N.O.L. It is possible to have a Federal N.O.L., but not a Georgia N.O.L.

Line 22. In computing a Georgia N.O.L., only Georgia amounts can be used. Interest on U.S. savings bonds should be entered as a negative number on this line. Non Georgia municipal interest should be entered as a positive number on this line. The nonbusiness portion of the retirement exclusion should be entered as a negative number on this line. This should be computed as follows. The total nonbusiness income (as it is defined for NOL purposes) that is included in the retirement exclusion should be divided by the total income that is included in the retirement exclusion. This percentage should then be multiplied by the retirement exclusion. For example, if the taxpayer has $8,000 in wages and $20,000 in interest income, the taxpayer would divide $20,000 by $28,000 and then multiply this by the retirement exclusion amount.

When computing the percentage the following guidelines should be followed:

1. If the total nonbusiness income that is included in the retirement exclusion is zero or less than zero, the percentage is zero. This would apply even if the total income that is included in the retirement exclusion is zero or less than zero.
2. If the total nonbusiness income that is included in the retirement exclusion is greater than zero and exceeds the total income that is included in the retirement exclusion, the percentage is 100%. This would apply even if the total income that is included in the retirement exclusion is zero or less than zero.

Additionally, in situations where two people file married filing joint, a separate computation should be made to determine each taxpayer's portion of the retirement exclusion that is related to nonbusiness income.
